NATIONAL AFFILIATION: NAIA Division I

Texas Lutheran is a senior, co-educational, liberal arts college owned by The American Lutheran Church. It receives support and students from all three major Lutheran synods. Students and faculty represent all major religious denominations and come from 37 states and seven foreign countries.

The College is committed to the development of the whole person and utilizes the resources of the Christian tradition in the fulfillment of that task. The administration and faculty have a genuine concern for each student, which is implemented by a low student-teacher ratio.

The institution is located on the western edge of Seguin (Population 18,000), county seat of Guadalupe County, in south-central Texas. The 120-acre campus is only a 30-minute drive from San Antonio on IH-10. The state capital of Austin and the attractions of the Gulf Coast and Mexico are in easy driving distance.

Texas Lutheran offers 28 areas of study leading to the bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, bachelor of music education, or associate in science degree. The College admits students of any race, color, and national or ethnic origin.

KNIGHT: "WE HAVE A VERY FINE TEAM!"

Although the Bulldogs lost 10 defensive and six offensive lettermen from last year's 3-6 team, Coach Dan Knight feels optimistic about the coming season. "On defense--a TLC tradition--we should be improved, along with having a better running game. Our biggest problem will be depth, particularly in the offensive line and defensive secondary."

Biggest strength will lie in the quarterback slot where Russ Rinn will serve his last year. "He has really taken command," Knight reports, "and has the confidence of the team as well as the coaches." Other returning veterans help make the 'Dogs "more experienced offensively than at any time since the national playoff in '76."

Potential All American Ronnie Glenewinkel highlights the defensive lineup at the end position, along with three other experienced lettermen. Jamie Cain, moved from quarterback, will handle the kicking duties for the fourth year and has a chance of setting a new school record for field goals. (Now 17 set by Ron Broz in 1969-71).

When fall practice began August 22, Knight was faced with 130 hopefuls, including 80 freshmen. This, coupled with a successful off-season program and a promising spring campaign lends an optimistic tone to the season's outlook.

"Our schedule is very difficult for our size school; it's very hard to predict a won/lost record, but I do feel we have a very fine football team!"

Knight will be taking his fourth Bulldog string into action, and faces his second year in Division I NAIA.

The TLC coach received his B.S. from Chadron State College, NB, in 1965 and earned the M.S. from Kansas State University in 1972. He was assistant football and head wrestling coach at Midland Lutheran College, Fremont, NB, before joining TLC.

FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

RAY KATT
Athletic Director and Defensive Backfield Coach

A man of many talents, Katt serves the college as athletic director and head baseball coach, as well as working with the football team as the defensive backfield coach.

Katt joined the TLC staff eight years ago. A former major league catcher, he "retired" after 15 years with the big leagues and completed work for two degrees at Southwest Texas State University. He coached at New Braunfels High before affiliating with Texas Lutheran.

VERL (JIGGS) WESTERGARD

A veteran in Texas collegiate coaching circles, Westergard was a four-sport letterman himself as an undergraduate. Widely respected for his technical knowledge in all sports, Westergard also served as basketball commissioner for the Big State Conference in recent years.

He served as head football coach for the Bulldogs in 1962-63, and was basketball coach for 13 years.

Westergard holds degrees from Gustavus Adolphus and Southwest Texas State University.

JOHN F. LAMME
Defensive Coordinator

Now in his fourth year with the Bulldogs as defensive coordinator, Lamme arrived at TLC with Coach Knight. He is a graduate of Midland Lutheran College, Fremont, NB and attended graduate school at the University of Nebraska, Omaha.

Lamme coached high school football in Fremont from 1968 until he moved to Texas Lutheran; he had served as head coach at Fremont since 1974.

TODD SPENCER
Receivers/Defensive Backs

New to the program this year, Spencer serves in a dual capacity as security officer and assistant in football. A defensive back with Pacific Lutheran College, he assisted with their spring football program before graduating last May. He will also be working very closely with the strength/weight program, both in- and off-season.
